Press Release

Improve Your Skills at “Light Studies”, Photography & Critiquing Workshop with Instructor David H. Wells at Waterfire Providence, September 24-25, 2016

Master photographing light, shadow, night, and twilight. These are the tools David H. Wells uses as he makes his award winning “Light Studies”, photo-essays exploring the light and atmosphere of different places. David will guide participating photographers through the strategies, subject matter, location scouting, and shooting of the art performance “Waterfire” in downtown Providence. The next day David will lead a review and critique of images shot. Please join us for this award winning photographer’s favorite workshop!

The workshop will be held at Peter Miller Fine Art Photography Gallery on Saturday September 24, 2016 from 2 - 8pm (Waterfire Providence) & Sunday September 25, 2016 from 1 - 4pm. Class limited to 12 participants. The registration fee is $210 per person (register before September 1, 2016 for \$160).

Wells will share specific techniques and particular images that highlight:

- Specific issues of time of day, and morning vs. evening light
- Quality and direction of light
- Scouting a location with a compass to plot the play of light
- Importance of the photographer’s position
- Use of lines, shadows, light and dark

This lecture and shooting class has extensive visuals to introduce you to the important and useful approach to using available light. Participants will gain a better understanding of natural light, how it is shaped by the time of day, seasons, and the photographer’s perspective.

For more details please visit the workshops page on the PMFA website. Register here.

David H. Wells is a freelance editorial photographer who specializes in producing photo-essays on location, across the globe.
